

T.C.
MERSİN UNIVERSITY
INSTITUTE OF HEALTH SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH MANAGEMENT

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

2025

HISTORY

- The Department of Health Management began accepting students in the fall semester of the 2014-2015 academic year. The Department of Health Management began accepting graduate students in the fall semester of 2019-2020. As of August 2025, 22 students have completed their master's degree programs and 35 students are currently pursuing their master's degree.

ACADEMIC STAFF

- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Fatma İNCE ÇIRAK
- Prof. Dr. Sabahattin TEKİNGÜNDÜZ
- Prof. Dr. Gülhan TEMEL
- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Kemal YAMAN
- Asst. Prof. Dr. Kenan GÖZLÜ

FILEDS OF RESEARCH

- Health Policy and Planning
- Health Economics
- Healthcare Financing
- Healthcare Communication
- Organizational Behavior in Healthcare Institutions
- Quality Management in Healthcare Institutions

PROGRAM COMPETENCIES

- To possess the knowledge to access scientific information in the field of Healthcare Management, monitor, evaluate, and apply current literature
- To be aware of the social and ethical responsibilities in management positions in healthcare institutions
- To independently conduct research using knowledge in the field of Healthcare Management and to assume responsibility as a team member in collaboration with other professionals working in this field
- To explain the fundamental concepts and basic functions of healthcare management at an expert level.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- Graduates with a master's degree in health management have the opportunity to work in the Ministry of Health, the Social Security Institution, public and private hospitals, universities, pharmaceutical and medical equipment companies, insurance companies, health units of media organizations and volunteer organizations.

CONTACT

- saglikbilimlerifakultesi@mersin.edu.tr